HAWAIIAN WILD RUBBER.

Samples of latex from the wild rubber tree forest on Hawaii will be sent to the International Rubber Exposition in New York. Upon reports by experts there will depend whether the material is worth gathering for either its chicle gum or its rubber. The rubber from these trees is lacking in elasticity, but has value for be!ting and other things where that quality is not essential. There is an area of 6000 acres of the trees fully grown, being public land under lease to Hind, Rolph

Representative Hull introduced a bill amending the Sherman act to provide for a penalty of 50 per cent. of the net earnings of a corporation convicted of violation.

NEW YORK, July 30.-Roosevelt for President. Such was the slogan adopted by several progressive conventious held throughout the country today. In Kansas City, the Colonel's name was received with cheers. The convention in New Haven, Connecticut, endorsed him, and named twentyeight delegates to the "Moose" convention to be held in Chicago August and instructed them to vote for Roosevelt.

In Kansas City the Progressives endorsed woman's suffrage, the recall of judicial decisions, the referendum, the initiative, and the other Roosevelt planks. The convention also, without a protest, endorsed Mr. Roosevelt's stand, and instructed the delegates to the coming national convention to vote for him for the nomination for President.

In Nebraska the Roosevelters were strong enough to capture the regular Republican convention and nominate their ticket. The result was that the Tafters bolted the convention and, going elsewhere, held a convention of their own and nominated a full ticket. In Phoenix, Arizona, the Progressive convention scored President Taft for what it called his "irresolution" in dealing with the state of affairs in

In Minnesota Taft received another blow. The presidential electors, selected by the regular Republican convention, resigned in a body, with the exception of one, and announced their intention of working and fighting for Roosevelt for President. They will doubtless be nominated by the Bull Moose convention.
